3. Outline of Corporations Act requirements

- 3.1 A person is in possession of "inside information" in relation to a company in circumstances where:

It does not matter how the Designated Person came to have the inside information.
- 3.3 If a Designated Person possesses "inside information" in relation to a company, the person must not:
- (a) deal in any securities of such company in any way; nor
 - (b) directly or indirectly communicate the information, or cause the information to be communicated, to another person if the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the other person would, or would be likely to, deal in any securities of such company in any way or procure a third person to deal in any securities of such company in any way.
- 3.4 The Designated Persons may obtain inside information in relation to another company. For example, in the course of negotiating a transaction with the company, another company might provide confidential information about itself.
- 3.5 A Designated Person who deals in Company Securities while in possession of "inside information" will be liable to both civil and criminal penalties.
- 3.6 Unpublished price sensitive "inside information" is information which the market is not aware and that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's Securities, and includes:
- (a) a proposed major acquisition or disposition;
 - (b) a significant business development or a proposed change in the nature of the company's business;
